

Bangkok's Songkran: The Ultimate Global Festival Experience

Category: Business

written by International Khabar | April 8, 2025

Bangkok, the vibrant heart of Thailand, continues to captivate travelers as one of the world's most visited cities. With its rich cultural heritage, world-class hospitality, and thrilling entertainment. This year, as the country gears up for Songkran, Thai new year celebration, run under campaign "Maha Songkarn World Water Festival 2025" the grand celebration that endorsed by Thai government. Visitors will experience unique tradition, water splashing events all over Thailand, and modern attractions.

Bangkok's Songkran: The Ultimate Global Festival Experience

Video Link: www.youtube.com/watch?v=4G62h9J2nw8

Bangkok has been recognized as the “Best City” in the 2025 DestinAsian Readers’ Choice Awards, reinforcing its reputation as a premier travel destination. Adding to its prestige, Songkran has been officially designated as an intangible cultural heritage by UNESCO. From April 12 to 16, the city transforms into a vibrant playground of water fights, cultural performances, and joyful celebrations, making it one of the most exhilarating times to visit.

During Songkran, Bangkok enjoys lighter traffic, making it an ideal time for tourists to explore the city. At the heart of the celebrations is EM DISTRICT, comprising Emporium, EmQuartier, and EmSphere, turning Sukhumvit into the ultimate entertainment hub with events and activities that showcase Thailand’s best offerings.

A major highlight is “Thai Hussa Maha Songkarn” which is a grand celebration of Songkarn festival from April 12-14, a big water splash and street food will be live up at EmSphere while traditional performances, Thai classical game booths, concert will be held at Benchasiri Park next to EmSphere.

Meanwhile, the “Thaitainment Market” hosted at EmSphere from April 3 to 20, featuring Bangkok’s most famous street food vendors, a vibrant Thai-style bar, and an impressive water tunnel entrance. This Instagram-worthy installation will be a major highlight.

Bangkok's Songkran: The Ultimate Global Festival Experience

To enhance the experience, the “Kud Thai” event which is mean the best Thai selection will highlight Thailand’s craftsmanship and Thai gourmet by selecting the best-in-class of each category and gathering in the event from March 27 to April 20. Emporium’s “Thai Pop Market”, features a curated selection of Thai souvenirs, local fashion, and premium Thai fruits. Visitors can also participate in traditional craft workshops and enjoy live Thai music performances. In addition, EmQuartier’s Thai Culinary Festival, held from April 3 to 16, presenting the country’s finest fruits and street food.

G-Circuit’s Songkran Gala 2.0 from April 11 to 14, one of Asia’s largest LGBTQ+ festivals. Hosted at UOB Live and Tribes Sky Beach Club, EmSphere. this spectacular event will welcome over 30,000 attendees for world-class DJ performances, dazzling entertainment, and an electrifying party experience.

With a perfect blend of tradition, modern festivities, and cultural immersion, Songkran at EM DISTRICT promises an unforgettable experience. Whether exploring Thai heritage, indulging in local delicacies, or joining celebrations, Bangkok remains the ultimate destination for Songkran in 2025.

