

Bombay Times and Delhi Times Celebrate 30 Years of Pioneering a New Media Space

Category: Business

written by | December 20, 2024

India's most iconic lifestyle and entertainment supplements, Bombay Times and Delhi Times, have officially kicked off their 30th Anniversary celebrations in grand style. Marking three decades of covering and defining glamour, entertainment, and culture, the celebrations began with Bollywood superstar Akshay Kumar, who unveiled a special tribute to Bombay Times in the form of a life-size front page of the paper at The Times of India office.

30 Years of Bombay Times and Delhi Times

Street Carnival Brings Nostalgia to Life

Adding to the celebratory fervor, a vibrant experiential street carnival is now underway outside The Times of India office. The carnival, which runs from December 19 to December 20, offers visitors a chance to step back in time and relive three decades of Bombay Times' unforgettable moments.

Highlights of the carnival include: Streets decked with vintage Bollywood movie posters and a red-carpet experience. Photo booths for fun, nostalgic snapshots and entertainment artists like Golden Statue Man, Mirror Man and Jugglers. Interactive fun counters such as tarot readings and bracelet making corner.

Celebrities like Ram and Gautami Kapoor, Taha Shah, Arjun Bijlani, Iqbal Khan, Sheeba and many others were also spotted enjoying the celebrations, exploring the walk-through timeline and posing at photo booths.

Special issue coming on December 21st

To celebrate the 30-year journey of Bombay Times and Delhi Times, both the iconic brands will be bringing out a special issue that will take readers on a nostalgic ride back to the 90s-the era that reshaped both the entertainment world and lifestyle journalism.

Launched in 1994, these publications recognized, ahead of almost all others in the space, that what entertained and engaged readers-Bollywood, fashion, food, fitness, and high society-was just as relevant to the reader as the hard news around politics and the economy. They created a new space that has grown stronger and more vibrant over three decades.

This special issue will take you back to the mid-90s, revisiting a time when movies ran for 25-50 weeks, cassette tapes needed pencils to rewind, and Page 3 became synonymous with flamboyance and aspirational living. It will feature untold stories of iconic names and their journeys over these three decades, along with a nostalgic look at people and stories that defined the era.

Don't miss this special edition-a heartfelt tribute to the past and a soft reminder of how decisively Bombay Times and Delhi Times have shaped entertainment and lifestyle media. Grab your copy tomorrow!

Reflecting on the milestone, Sivakumar Sundaram, CEO, Bennett, Coleman & Co. Ltd., said, "Completing 30 years of Bombay Times and Delhi Times is a moment of immense pride. These publications have become an integral part of our readers' lives, capturing the pulse of India's entertainment and lifestyle landscape. The 30th Anniversary celebrations are our way of expressing gratitude to our readers, partners and the world of showbusiness for their unwavering support through the years.

