Sussanne Khan's pioneering luxury interior and furniture brand – The Charcoal Project, opened its second retail gallery in Hyderabad, following the footsteps of its successful reception in Mumbai. The store spans 35,000 square feet across six thoughtfully curated levels, each offering a unique design experience blending Sussanne Khan's signature aesthetic with exciting collaborations and partnerships. From elegant gifting accents and textured, eclectic interiors to immersive dining concepts and limited-edition gallery pieces, the store is a blend of innovation and craftsmanship. It features an exclusive floor dedicated to Gauri Khan Designs, a modern library-inspired space with playful geometry, and a rustic Barn House for creative discussions, complete with Sussanne's personal studio and a sprawling indoor-outdoor lounge.

"The Charcoal Project, Hyderabad is a celebration of design at its finest-featuring unique works, limited-edition furniture, objects of curiosity, and a curated collection of fine art by talented artists. We cant wait to welcome you into this world of creativity," says Sussanne Khan.

Collaborations to Look Out For:

Janavi:Sussanne Khan x Janavi presents a collection as timeless as it is modern. Jyotika Jhalani says the collaboration transcends dcor, blending nature's wonders with refined textiles, intricate craftsmanship, and regal aesthetics. Whether maximalist or minimalist, the collection's rich hues of crimson, blue, and green bring a deeper connection to nature and comfort.

de Gournay: Known for its exquisite hand-painted wallcoverings. de Gournay's 'River Scenes of Bengal' is a standout installation, alongside designs like Rousseau, Amazonia, and Chichester, all of which evoke breathtaking narratives through intricate, hand-painted artistry. These wallcoverings are available throughout the store, bringing a timeless luxury to the gallery's expansive interiors. Each design tells a unique story-from the exotic Amazonia to the majestic 'River Scenes of Bengal,' inspired by the winding Ganges.

With its expansion into Hyderabad, The Charcoal Project continues to redefine India's design landscape-one inspired space at a time. Now open to the public, the store offers an exclusive opportunity to experience world-class interiors and home dcor like never before.

This milestone was made possible through a two-year collaboration with Electronics Mart India Ltd (EMIL), a leader in retail, whose shared vision helped bring this project to life. Together, The Charcoal Project and EMIL have seamlessly blended Sussanne Khan's design philosophy with a commitment to quality and innovation, creating a truly exceptional destination for luxury interiors.
