- TTK Good Home launches a Diwali-to-Diwali campaign to clean one orphanage or old age home every week for a year
- The campaign began in Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra and will move into a new State every month
- Each facility being cleaned will also be given a year-long supply of cleaning supplies
- With a current topline of Rs. 100 crores, they aim to increase it by 20% next year

Good Home, a brand of TTK Healthcare's Consumer Product Division, launched their campaign to highlight the satisfaction of living in a clean home environment. During the yearlong Diwali to Diwali campaign – ‘Your Happy Nest’, TTK Good Home will clean one orphanage / old age home every week, ie 50 centers, using their trusted cleaning & home care product range to deliver clean, hygienic & fragrant homes.

Good Home team on the Happy Nest campaign

TTK Good Home launched the campaign in a home for elderly ladies – Parivartan Mahila Sanstha – in Dombivali East, Thane district in Maharashtra and in a children’s home – Udhavam Nanbargal – in Alathur, Tiruvallur district in Tamil Nadu.

They will provide each location with a yearlong supply of cleaning and air care products, along with guidance on maintaining cleanliness. TTK Good Home has a range of Home Cleaning & Hygiene products like brooms, wipers, scrubbers, aroma room fresheners, air fresheners, glass cleaners, sponge wipes, odor removers and more.

Saket Govind, DGM Marketing said, “Diwali signifies new beginnings, joy and the triumph of light over darkness. Everyone deserves a clean and pleasant environment, especially in places like old age homes and orphanages, where a welcoming atmosphere can significantly enhance residents lives. This Diwali, we launched an initiative to transform over 50 such places into 'Happy Nests.' From this Diwali to the next, we plan to create clean, fragrant spaces using Good Home's range of cleaning and air care products. Our goal is to uplift these environments, bringing comfort and happiness to residents and creating spaces that truly feel like home. In line with Good Home's vision of creating happy homes, we are moving toward making joyful environments for these children and elders as well."

The campaign has now begun with one place each in Tamil Nadu and Maharashtra,. It will move to Karnataka, Telengana and West Bengal as the campaign proceeds to cover the rest of India across the next 12 months. This is an initiative to support clean & hygienic places of residences across India; a mission to do this one home, every week.
